SNAP Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program

Are You a College Student Struggling to Afford Food?

Most low-income students who meet any of the following are SNAP eligible, including students:

- awarded MassGrant financial aid;
- awarded work study (even if no work study job yet);
- attend a community college or certain voc/tech schools; or
- are students who have children, have a disability, or meet other SNAP rules

Eligible students may receive up to $298 /month. Students with spouses or children may be eligible for more.
